

Daniel Davis above all else, is a man who genuinely cares about people. Wherever his life journey takes him, Daniel finds ways to reach out to others. From the role of Associate Pastor in his college days to his active volunteerism in the city of Springfield, Daniel finds real opportunities to impact the lives of others. Daniel's sincere desire to see the person and not just the situation propels him to empower and equip so that everyone has a foundation upon which to build.

Daniel currently serves as the Special Assistant to the Director at the Illinois Department of Public Health where he acts in an advisory and consultative capacity. Prior to this, Daniel worked as a Legislative Liaison for the Illinois Department of Public Health and was a Dunn Fellow in the Office of the Governor.

Daniel earned his Associates Degree in Speech Communication from Southeastern Illinois College and graduated with honors from Southern Illinois University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Speech Communication. Daniel is an energetic, down-to-earth, 26-year-old Harrisburg native who recognizes the uniqueness of the 19th Congressional District and is determined to bring that voice to the forefront.
